 - a. 12 of our members attended a double presentation of ghost stories The Signal Man by Charles Dickens and Oh, Whistle and I'll Come to You, My Lad by M R James at the Palace Theatre on 6th March 2014. Take up for these plays was not as good as expected and our members have reported back that they found the story lines difficult to follow.
 - b. 12 members attended a concert given by the Choir of Claire College Cambridge at the Plaza Centre on 21st March 2014. Reports back described the music as heavenly and the whole concert as brilliant.
 - c. Staff and councillors organised a social afternoon at the Community Centre on 10th April 2014. This included a talk on the History of Leigh, some light refreshments, a quiz and music from Bob's Barbershop. 24 members attended and the whole event proved a great success.
9. Progress on Arrangements for Future Events:
 - a. Palace Theatre - Half a Sixpence on Thursday 29th May 2014. 28 tickets have been purchased and take up is good. Transport and helpers are still to be arranged.
 - b. Little progress has been made on researching the suitability of a visit to Beeleigh Abbey Gardens, Maldon and Easton Lodge, Saffron Walden for later in the summer.
